GRP Solutions Acquires Estakleen

GRP Solutions Ltd is delighted to announce its recent acquisition of Estakleen Systems Ltd. Estakleen is a supplier of acetone replacement products including EasyClean, supplied for several years by GRP Solutions, and the previously named Estakleen 70. Our acquisition is in line with our aim to develop a more sustainable range of products including non-hazardous alternatives to acetone.

GRP Solutions is also pleased to welcome Vince Taylor, formerly Operations Manager at Estakleen, as our new Business Development Manager for Estakleen products, and Glenn Russell, who manages the Estakleen warehouse and cleaning service based in Corfe Mullen.

Brian Harpur, Managing Director of GRP Solutions comments, "Offering an eco-friendlier solvent replacement system to the industrial market, consisting of an acetone replacement and workstations, forms part of our wider ambition to drive change through the composites market. This non-flammable, non-toxic and non-harmful approach to cleaning tools is a more sustainable solution which lasts three to four times longer than acetone."

Please contact vincetaylor@grp-solutions.com for further information on any of the Estakleen products or a demo.
